

Corpus Christi

*O Sacrament Most Holy,
O Sacrament Divine,
All Praise and All Thanksgiving, be every moment thine!*

Glorify the Lord,
O Jerusalem;
praise your God,
O Zion.

For he has strengthened
the bars of your gates;
he has blessed your children within you.
He has granted peace
in your borders;
with the best of wheat
he fills you.

He sends forth his command to the earth;
swiftly runs his word!
He has proclaimed his word to Jacob, his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
He has not done thus
for any other nation;
his ordinances he has not made known to them.

Alleluia.

The Pastor's Page

From a work by Saint Thomas Aquinas, priest

(Opusculum 57, in festo Corporis Christi, lect. 1-4)

O precious and wonderful banquet!

Since it was the will of God's only-begotten Son that men should share in his divinity, he assumed our nature in order that by becoming man he might make men gods. Moreover, when he took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us for ever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine.

O precious and wonderful banquet, that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this? No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, so that what was instituted for the salvation of all may be for the benefit of all. Yet, in the end, no one can fully express the sweetness of this sacrament, in which spiritual delight is tasted at its very source, and in which we renew the memory of that surpassing love for us which Christ revealed in his passion.

It was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that our Lord instituted this sacrament at the Last Supper. As he was on the point of leaving the world to go to the Father, after celebrating the Passover with his disciples, he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion. It was the fulfillment of ancient figures and the greatest of all his miracles, while for those who were to experience the sorrow of his departure, it was destined to be a unique and abiding consolation.

Summer Dress for Mass

What is appropriate for Mass during summer?

Appropriate dress should reflect three things:

- Our RESPECT for Jesus' Real Presence in the Eucharist;
- Our RESPECT for God's house; and
- Our RESPECT for our brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ.

With this in mind, a guideline for men, women, youth and children would be no shorts or short skirts and no low cut tops or tight attire. When in doubt, it is always best to choose in the favor of modesty.

SATURDAY and SUNDAY EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS...

In order to insure the proper number of Eucharistic Ministers for Mass, please continue the practice of checking in the sacristy before Mass to see if your services are needed.

Thank you, Sharon

Pro-Life Corner

Did you know that March 25 is exactly 9 months before December 25 - the birth of Christ? Every month we provide an update about the development of a child in the womb from conception on Mar 25 to birth on Dec 25. (More under www.kfl.org). Our unborn child is named Chris. We are now in week 14: Chris now has teeth buds for all his teeth. Teething will come later. Chris is 3 inches long and weighs in at one ounce. Chris is still exercising and practicing inhaling and exhaling. All nourishment is now coming through the placenta. Vocal cords begin to form, and although they may not be ready for a rock band, Chris will use them immediately following birth for that first cry! Now the mother usually feels better and has more energy.
